

AN ATTACK ON PORT ARTHUR KALUA IS NOW A HOME RULER

Judge J. W. Kalua of Maui has left the Republican party and is now a Home Ruler. It is stated that he will be Home Rule candidate for Senator in the coming fall election. Kalua has already made some red hot speeches against the Republican party. It is reported. In fact the judge took the stump as soon as he heard of his removal, and he is now as hot a Home Ruler as any in the Territory.

Kalua is credited with a lot of influence on Maui, but he failed to carry his own election in the recent primaries. He is one of the most eloquent orators living in the Hawaiian language, and he will make a warm campaign. He will also make a warm senator if he is elected.

On Maui the Home Rule-Democratic fusion idea is said to be farther advanced than anywhere in the islands, and it is predicted by some of the politicians of that island that the two factions will be able to carry all before them. F. W. Beckley, speaker of the House, will be a candidate for reelection, though it is not known yet what ticket he will run on. Beckley has been "read out" of the Home Rule party and he has no crooked record to get back on. Beckley was originally a Republican but left the party when, as he claims, he was given an unfair deal in the primaries. The speaker declares he has enemies in the Republican party who will not give him a fair deal and that he might otherwise join with the party. Beckley's friends claim that he can carry his district anyhow, and he expects to be in the next House.

CHARGED HIM WITH POLYGAMY

WARRANT ISSUED TODAY FOR THE ARREST OF D. A. MACKINTOSH ON A SERIOUS CHARGE.

THETIS SAILS FOR HONOLULU TODAY

REVENUE CUTTER LEAVES THE COAST FOR THIS PLACE—WILL BE STATIONED HERE.

A warrant was issued this morning by Judge Lindsay for the arrest of D. A. Mackintosh on a charge of polygamy. Daniel Nicholson swore to the complaint. Mackintosh was until a few days ago employed at E. O. Hall & Sons.

According to the complaint Mackintosh married Marion C. Tunsted in 1895 and then in 1902 he married Clara Neiberding in Canada. The first wife, according to the complaint, appears to have been deserted for the second one. Wife number 2 was in Honolulu with her husband until recently when she returned to the Coast. Wife number 1 is residing in San Francisco.

The revenue cutter Thetis has at last sailed for Honolulu. A special dispatch to the Marine Exchange today stated that the vessel had sailed from the Coast yesterday for this place. She should come down in about 8 to 9 days. The Thetis will be quite a novelty to Hawaiians as she is the first revenue cutter to be stationed at Honolulu. She is here only on temporary duty. She is expected to remain some months before returning to the Coast. She will probably be relieved by another vessel.

JOE AND THE BAND

COHEN PUTS HIS PROPOSITION IN WRITING AS ASKED FOR BY GOVERNOR CARTER—SAYS HE WILL NOT LEAVE HERE WITHOUT HAVING FARES OF THE BAND PLAYERS PAID BOTH WAYS.

J. C. Cohen this morning complied with Governor Carter's request that he put his band tour proposition in writing. Cohen sent a letter to the executive setting forth what he was willing to do, declaring that he would see that the members of the band did not lack for fares to get them back here. Cohen says he will have fares paid both ways, will advance a month's salary to each member of the band, for their families here, and will buy new instruments, to be presented to the players at the end of their six months' tour.

Governor Carter's principal demand was in the matter of fares. He wanted security put up to show that the band would be able to get back. "We do not want to have the band get East and to have to take up subscriptions to get them back," said the governor.

Cohen declares that he will not leave here with the band until the fares are paid both ways. "I don't intend to run any risk of getting the band stranded," said Cohen. "I can carry the thing through on my terms as stated and will see that the members of the band are looked after. All I want is that the governor shall give them leave of absence, so that when they come back they will still be in the government service and can continue in their present positions. If the government doesn't want to accept my proposition I will take the band anyhow. The members talk to me of quitting their present jobs, to go on the tour, but I tell them not to do so. I have made my proposition to the governor in writing as asked for, and can get the money."

Deputy Attorney General Prosser will go to Hilo on the Mauna Loa Friday to prosecute at the coming term of the Circuit Court.
